SOFTBALL TEAMS FORM LEAGUE UNIT

Thursday evening representatives from James Island, Saanich-ton, North Saanich Service Club, West Saanich Indians, Sidney, 16th Canadian Scottish of North Saanich district, and 16th Canadian Scottish of Salt Spring Island met at the Review office with E. Stocks, president of Victoria and District Softball League, and his secretary, present.

Hugh J. McIntyre acted as chairman and Mr. Stocks explained in detail the workings of the Victoria and District Softball League. He explained that the delegates present could form a league of their own and affiliate with the B.C. body or they could join the Victoria and District League as a unit and play as a group by themselves, the winner of the group being entitled to enter the play-downs at the end of the season. It was explained that if the local teams wished to form a separate league of their own it would cost perhaps $15 or $20 per team to cover all expenses of registrations, affiliation fees, score cards, etc., whereas joining the city league as a unit would cost around $5 per team and this sum would cover everything, affiliation, registration of players, score cards, printed rules, etc.

After considerable discussion it was decided to join the city league as a unit. This being decided Mr. Stocks then intimated that the local league or unit elect someone to represent same on the league council in Victoria. Mr. McIntyre was chosen to look after the interests of the local teams. Mr. Stocks explained that it would be necessary for a direct representative from every team entering the local league to be present at a later date when the schedule is drawn up and that entry fees would be payable directly to the city league. Just how much the fees will be is to be determined in a few days when the annual meeting of the B.C. Softball Association takes place. Entries for teams in the local unit will not be required for three or four weeks yet.

The question of travelling to Salt Spring proved a stumbling block for a number of teams and it was suggested by Mr. Stocks that Salt Spring make Sidney their home grounds, and where it could be arranged teams would go to Salt Spring. This matter will be taken up with Salt Spring before the schedule is drawn up. It is determined by officials in Victoria, each team playing two games a week. In order to form the local unit there must be not less than six teams. At the present time it would appear that at least eight teams will enter.

All local teams will be kept advised of proceedings by Mr. McIntyre.

GOLF CLUB ELECTS NEW OFFICERS

The course was reported to be in better shape this year than ever before, and therefore an even more successful year is looked forward to.

It was decided to abolish the entrance fee, with the hope that it would be an inducement for people to join.

The handsome silver cup, emblematic of the championship, was presented to the winners by E. L. Jones, president of the service club.

Keen interest has been shown throughout the three months of play and this tournament, which is held annually by the local club, is every year increasing in popularity.

Runners-up in the tournament were Mrs. F. J. Baker and Miss Coline Cochran with 31,480 points, and A. Deildal and P. A. Boudin with 30,250 points.

GARDENS DO BEAUTIFY YOUR HOME

With the hopes of creating interest in small gardens the North and South Saanich Horticultural Society is sponsoring a "Cottage Garden Contest" to be open to the entire district, not necessarily members of the society. In this contest any garden of one quarter of an acre or less, which must include the house, may be entered. Points to be awarded more for the efforts put forward rather than the rarity or variety of flowers, etc., viewed.

There will be two judgments of plots, the first approximately during the first week in May and the second in June.

In addition to the Pioneer Society Challenge Cup, which will go to the first place winner, E. M. Straight, superintendent of the Dominion Experimental Station, is offering a Planet Jr. cultivator and seeds.

All entries are to be made as soon as possible to Mrs. E. L. Hammond, secretary of the North and South Saanich Horticultural Society.

Thanks are due to H. Harris, V. Zala and Mrs. R. Stevens, who helped produce the play and show. Miss Edwina Morgan was convener, Kenneth Page acted as announcer and Mrs. Morgan assisted the Amigos at supper. TWILIGHT RECITAL IS PRESENTED

"The Captives of Babylon," an oratorio in two parts, presented by the Garden City Choir, made up the entire program of the second twilight recital presented in Saint Paul's United Church on Sunday afternoon.

Though there was not as large an audience as on the previous occasion, no doubt due to the variance of weather conditions, the afternoon was one of enjoyment to the music lovers present.

Rev. Thos. Keyworth acted as chairman and the choir was conducted throughout by John Jones, with Miss Elsie Frynt as accompanist.

She will give two of Pauline Johnson's poems, in costume; also Jewish readings and a variety of costume numbers and songs, both comedy and drama, and a one-act play.

ELGAR CHOIR WILL ENTER FESTIVAL

With the success of their first venture—their first annual concert—still ringing in their ears, the Elgar Choir of Sidney is planning for a season of activity, first of which is a concert for May 8th. Entirely new music has been purchased and the choir, under the directorship of J. W. Buckler, is hard at work with preparations for this second program.

Entry has also been made in the Music Festival to be held in Victoria during the second week in May, while both the choir and a ladies' choir will take part in the massed choir recital for the Victoria 24th of May celebrations.

The efforts of the conductor and those who were instrumental in organizing the choir are bringing forth fruits in abundance, there being over 40 members in the club at the present time, with new additions each week. It is particularly asked that all those contemplating joining the choir do so at once in order that the work on the concert and other items may not be delayed.

Miss Gertrude Straight, A.T.C.M., is the choir's accompanist, and the practices are held each Tuesday evening in the Sidney School.

Anyone interested in this organization may get further particulars from either Mrs. A. W. Hollands or Mrs. S. Thorne.

"It was worthless until properly advertised"

For a long time it was a failure. No one would buy a Gillette Razor. In desperation King C. Gillette began giving razors away. But it did no good.

It was not till nearly ten years later, when an advertising expert came along that Gillette Razors began to boom. In a few years Gillette was a rich man. His company came to have a capital of £6,000,000, with a profit of $1,500,000 and factories all over the world.

One fact stands out: THE IDEA WAS WORTHLESS UNTIL PROPERLY ADVERTISED.

Why shouldn't you benefit by advertising? Harness the "power of the Press" to your own problem. Tell people about your product or service. And keep telling them! It's the "hammer, hammer, hammer" that brings the business in. Remember—

"LEST WE FORGET"

In anticipation of the showing in the near future of Canada's great peace picture, "Lest We Forget," sponsored by the Canadian Legion, and with regard to the criticism the picture has received in the Federal House, the following editorial from the Ottawa Journal is of interest:

"Whatever may be said of the picture of this name now showing at the RKO Capitol Theatre, Ottawa, let no one say of it that it is propaganda for war. For not all the books that have been written against war, nor all the sermons that have been preached against it, tell as much of its stark, awful pity. This is not a picture to pandor to the morbid or the sensational, nor is it compounded of that mere emphasis upon horror and beastliness which have marred cinema versions of so many war books. What is shown here is an actual and faithful photographic record of things that were done and endured by Canada's own flesh and blood in those four dread years in France—a mingling of human heroism and sacrifice with acts and scenes so terrible as to be almost beyond belief.

"Watching this procession pass by on the screen, there comes to one, two overpowering emotions: pride in the valor and fibre of the men who could live, endure or die amid such scenes; horror that a world, supposedly Christian and civilized, should permit such things to happen. Here before one's gaze passes the whole desolating story of the war; the brave marching away; the comradeship of the men who fought; the all but incredible acts of carnage on land and sea and in the air; the battlefield strewn with remnants of men and of machines designed to kill them; the waves of human beings rolling over shell-torn earth, moving on to defeat, or victory, deathless in their courage to face death. Other scenes there are—snatches of the gay courage and humor that nothing could kill, scenes of moving and solemn beauty—but it is the terror of it all, and the pity, the mud and slime and violence of war, that stand out. That and that final field of endless crosses, fruit of it all, and eternal symbol and condemnation of what war means.

"For those who conceived this picture—an historical record that few of us should miss—for Lord Beaverbrook, who organized the Canadian War Records; for Captain William Douglas, now of the Historical Section of the Department of National Defence, who was in charge in the battle areas of the heroic photographers who secured these priceless pictures, and who has served as secretary of the committee responsible for the production; for Captain Frank Badgley, Director of the Canadian Motion Picture Bureau, who made the dramatic construction of the picture; for the author of the moving lines descriptive of the various scenes—for all of those there should be gratitude. They have given us a story of the war, and a picture of it, that is unforgettable in its significance and its pathos, have performed, we think, a notable public service. Those who believe in war, those who hate war, those who think war as something glamorous, those who wish to know what our own endured for us in the world's Calvary—all should see 'Lest We Forget.'"

SIDNEY AND DISTRICT

Doukhobor prisoners are being released from time to time from the penal colony on Piers Island, just off Swartz Bay and are returning to their community near Nelson. From reports gained from interpreters of the released prisoners they were not impressed with their incarceration on the island since 1932. They were imprisoned at that time for demonstrating in the nude.

Miss Rhoda Craig returned home from hospital after having a tonsil operation. She will remain home for a week or ten days before returning to work.

Miss Mathison of Vancouver gave a lecture on Tuesday afternoon at the United Church here. Miss Mathison is a social service worker and lecturer in B.C.

A chimney fire at the home of Mr. F. J. Baker caused considerable alarm for a time last Friday morning. The fire whistle was blown and distinctly heard in all parts of the district of North Saanich, to which response was immediately given by local fire fighters and what looked like a serious blaze was soon put under control.

The regular Y.P.S. meeting took place on Monday evening when the topic, "Great Deeds Done for Christ," was taken by Ivy Hill. Next week the group will entertain the Centennial Society at an "April Fool Social."

A few repairs and a coat of paint has made the local police office, First Street, take on a spring-like appearance.

Mrs. M. Holmes and family are moving this week to the Sandover estate on East Road. Mrs. Holmes will now have larger premises and better accommodation for her guests.
